Waukeee Betterment Foundation Planning Final Triumph Park Fundraising Event

Waukeee, Iowa—The Waukeee Betterment Foundation is $2.3 million into its fundraising efforts for the inclusive amenities being built at Waukeee's 66-acre Triumph Park. On Thursday, Sept. 30, the non-profit organization will host "Headed for Home", a final event geared toward raising part of the remaining $380,000 needed to finish the Waukeee EPIC Inclusive Playground, the Greater Iowa Credit Union Miracle League™ Field and the accessible fishing pier.

"Headed for Home" will be held at Kinship Brewing Company on Sept. 30 from 5-7 p.m. Kinship is located at 255 NW Sunrise Drive in Waukeee, just to the southwest of Triumph Park. The event will feature a special existing donor recognition celebration at 5:30 p.m., sponsored by ATW Training, Bank Iowa and Miller, Fidler and Hinke Insurance. There is no admission cost; members of the public are encouraged to attend and learn more about the Waukeee Betterment Foundation's Triumph Park efforts.

"The support we've gotten from local businesses, foundations and grant programs has been fantastic, even during the recent tough times," said Waukeee Betterment Foundation Board President Todd McDonald. "When we started fundraising for this project, we always planned to end with a public campaign inviting individuals and families to help close out the project, and we're excited to get to this point. You can now see the project coming together. We look forward to our June 2022 opening!"

Once open, Triumph Park will serve as a regional destination for sports tournaments and outdoor activities for those of all abilities.

Attendees are asked to RSVP to "Headed for Home" via the event on Waukeee Betterment Foundation's Facebook page: www.facebook.com/waukeebettermentfoundation.
